Health & Happiness Fair at the Lawrence Headquarters Branch of the Mercer County Library System

Lawrenceville — The Lawrence Headquarters Branch of the Mercer County Library will hold its inaugural Health & Happiness Fair on Saturday, June 10th from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm in conjunction with the Lawrence Health Department. The library is partnering with more than twenty physical and mental health resource providers, as well as community agencies, organizations, and businesses to bring programs of support to the public free of charge. Agencies will address cancer screening and prevention, senior services, mental health services including sleep and wellness, suicide prevention, addiction, grief counseling and more.

Participating health vendors will offer blood pressure checks, eye screening, body composition analysis and fall prevention tips. The Lawrence Health Department will provide COVID-19 vaccines for adults.

In addition to crafts and activities for kids, participants may attend a meet and greet with a therapy dog, take part in raffles and enjoy free giveaways and snacks.

Join us for this information packed event at the Lawrence Headquarters Branch of the Mercer County Library System is located at 2751 Brunswick Pike, Lawrenceville, NJ.
